The value of investments and the income from them can go down as well as up and you may not recover the amount of your original investment. Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future results and forecasts are not a reliable indicator of future performance.

Where an investment involves exposure to foreign currency, changes in the rates of exchange may cause the value of the investment, and the income from it, to go up or down. Commissions and exchange fees are not included.

In the case of some investments, you should be aware that there is no recognised market for them, and that it may therefore be difficult for you to deal in them or for you to obtain reliable information about their value or the extent of the risks to which they are exposed.

Certain investments carry a higher degree of risk than others and are, therefore, unsuitable for some investors. It may be possible to lose all of your initial capital in certain types of investments.
